I have been advised and am informed that there are inherent hazards in practicing Aikido. Before enrolling, I have had the opportunity to observe Aikido classes and ask questions about the risks inherent in practicing Aikido.

I understand that Aikido is a martial art, which involves physical contact, falling, stretching, tumbling, and strenuous body movement. I understand that occasional injuries occur and are a risk in taking part. I hereby personally assume all risk in connection with my Aikido practice for any harm, injury, or damage that may befall me as a result of my participation, whether foreseen or unforeseen. I understand and agree that instructors, Kitsap Aikido, assistant instructors, and my fellow students may not be held liable in any way for any occurrence in connection with my Aikido practice that may result in injury, death or other damages to me or my family, heirs, or assigns. In consideration of being allowed to practice Aikido at Kitsap Aikido with my instructors and fellow students, I hereby personally assume all risks in connection with my Aikido practice, for any harm, injury, or damage that may befall me while I practice Aikido, including all risks connected therewith, whether foreseen or unforeseen; and further to save and hold harmless Kitsap Aikido and all other persons associated therewith from any claim by me, or my family, estate heirs, or assigns, arising out of my enrollment and participation in Aikido practice.

I further state that I am of lawful age and legally competent to sign this affirmation and release, or that I have acquired the written consent of my parents or guardians; that I understand the terms herein are contractual and not a mere recital and that I have signed this document of my own free act.
